happening but thinks he could do a better job than either of the others. Decatur chaired the Partney campaign four years ago.

Schuler, the candidate of the dominant political organization running the campaign, is part of a team that includes four other incumbent officials. City Treasurer Nick Petrillo, Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer, City Clerk Robert Stevens and Assessor Von Dee Clegg. All four serve on the National Democratic Committee.

Partney is the "outsider" in the race but also has built a city-wide organizational structure that helped him finish a strong second in his first try for the office of mayor—close Granite City is dynamic, drifting or decaying, in the opinions of the three April 7 mayor candidates—Mayor Paul Schuler, 49, Alderman Warren Decatur, 63, and County Board Member Daniel Partney, 31. Each pledges that 1981 will be a period of progress if he is elected.

In a repeat of their 1977 confrontation, Schuler is pointing with pride to municipal accomplishments and Partney is more than a bit harnessed by the problems besetting the city.

A new element this time is the "third man theme" sounded by Decatur. He is not entirely pleased or displeased with what has been enough to give him confidence to try again.

At this stage of the race, Partney may pose more of a threat to Schuler than to Decatur, who has been a big vote-getter in Ward Four but does not have as much of an organization in other wards. However, predicting the outcome is difficult; city elections can be volatile and at the end of the treasurer race he thought to be large enough to finance substantive campaigning during March.

With eight years as mayor following prior service as president of the Granite City Park Board,

Dr. Jacob Cohen dies here at 72

Dr. Jacob Cohen, 72, of 212 N. Kingshighway, St. Louis, a Granite City physician for more than 40 years, died at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 28, 1981, at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis.

Dr. Cohen had suffered chest pains and entered the hospital Thursday.

Death was attributed to an aneurysm. Two weeks ago, the physician was named a recipient of the Illinois Health Association's Award of Merit, an award bestowed annually "to an individual, group of individuals or agency who has or have made outstanding contributions of major significance to the public health movement."

He was to have been guest of honor at the IPHA's annual awards luncheon on April 30 in Springfield. Dr. Cohen was director of the sexually transmitted disease clinic at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. He was primarily responsible for organizing the clinic some years ago.

He had been a member of the Granite City Hospital staff since 1938 and was still in private practice.

Dr. Cohen received his medical degree in 1933 from the University of Illinois.

He was born in Buffalo, N.Y., and had resided here for many years prior to moving to St. Louis.

Among the survivors are a son, Dr. Irvin Neal Cohen of Springfield, Mo.; two daughters, Mrs. Norman (Gene) Jouett and Cheryl Jouett, Madison County Community Development director.

Marijuana case studied

Children 8 to 15 given pot to smoke

What can you do when you know an adult is giving marijuana to your small children and encouraging them to smoke it?

That is a question a Granite City couple has tried to deal with the last few weeks with frustrating results.

The children, ages 8, 12, 12 and 15, have been in the custody of their mother since a divorce, but the natural father has visitation rights, including the right to keep the children on given weekends.

With the father keeping the children, he gives them marijuana to smoke, smokes with them and brings them home "stoned," the mother contends. (The names of those involved are not being printed to protect the reputations and futures of the children.)

Upon returning home from an Oct. 31, 1980, visit with their father, the smallest child kept falling asleep in his food at the table and another became ill, vomited in sleep and could not wake himself enough to elicit a breath sample, which caused him to briefly suffocate, it was related.

The mother, who has remarried, and her current husband talked to the children, who admitted their natural father had given them marijuana to smoke while they were visiting him. The children gave the mother some marijuana the natural father had given them to keep.

After the latest incident of marijuana being given to the children, the mother and her husband went to see the Granite City police, and she signed a complaint charging the natural father with giving marijuana to a minor.

The police said they were not told by the state's attorney's office that the case was going to trial until the morning of Feb. 22.

Judge Hildebrand said he had no choice. The case was called for trial and under the law, the state was unable to prove its case so the defendant motion for a directed verdict was granted.

Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber disagrees, saying there is sufficient case law that lay testimony is sufficient to determine whether or not marijuana was smoked and lack of a laboratory test does not disprove the evidence.

He said that he had not studied the case, but it appears the question to be tried was whether the father had contributed to the delinquency of

Granite City police say they are not to blame. Traditionally, the state's attorney's office, which prosecutes such cases, guides the police when a case is being prepared for trial and the police then send the evidence (in this case marijuana) to a crime laboratory in Fairview Heights for chemical analysis.

Directions and marijuana are not sent to the lab in all cases, because most cases are worked out in plea bargaining and there is no reason to waste taxpayers' money analyzing the substances, unless there is to be a trial.

To assure transit subsidy

Bill Haine, the chairman of the Madison County Mass Transit Board and Richard Brauer of the St. Clair County transit board met Thursday to see that the Bi-State Development Agency gets its state subsidy.

Haine said Thursday that the board would assure the Illinois Department of Transportation that the district will provide a local subsidy to Bi-State as outlined by a 1980 state law.

"The IDOT has asked for such assurances before it approves release of the full state subsidy for the period beginning in January. The law states that as of January the Metro-East area had to begin subsidizing Bi-State in order for the full state subsidy to continue."

Haine said that his board is still in the process of negotiating an agreement with IDOT.

Haine expected the board would act to comply with IDOT's request when it held its regular monthly meeting this afternoon.

The Madison County mass transit board and Richard Brauer of the St. Clair County transit board met Thursday to see that the Bi-State Development Agency gets its state subsidy.

Young said the fact that St. Clair, Madison and Monroe counties had established transit sales taxes wasn't sufficient assurance that the subsidy will actually be turned over.

(Revenue from the tax isn't expected to be received until May.)

Slab caster now in use

With the start-up at 2 a.m. today of an advanced new multi-million-dollar slab casting machine at its Granite City Steel Division plant, National Steel Corp. became the first major domestic steelmaker to surpass 50 percent in plate-making capability by the continuous casting method.

All three of National's steelmaking plants are now equipped with continuous slab casters.

"This is technologically superior process for turn-around time directly into a continuous ribbon of solid steel is now utilized for about 30 percent of the raw steel products of the domestic steel industry," a spokesman told the Press-Record.

"The capital improvement at Granite City Steel is part of a $1 billion National Steel program to give its steel division both highly productive and competitive continuous casting capability, and to adapt its two basic oxygen furnaces to the bottom-blowing and bottom-stirring technique for making steel."

Housed in a newly-built 12-story mill building, the caster is the first machine of its kind in North America to utilize a remotely-adjustable mold for varying the width of the continuous slab during operation. It is capable of producing steel slabs 8½ inches thick in widths between 49 and 84 inches.

Council to meet in town hall to aid handicapped

The Granite City Council will hold its first meeting in the Granite City Township Hall tomorrow night so handicapped residents will be able to attend.

Two weeks ago, the council voted to hold its next town board meeting in the township hall, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, which is accessible to the handicapped, while the regular town board meetings are held at the top floor of the city hall building, which has no elevator.

The decision to hold the meeting in the township was made at the request of several wheelchair-bound residents who objected to being unable to attend city council sessions.

Alderman Lloyd Bailey of the Fifth

Ward got permission from Granite City Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer to use the township hall for the meeting. The motion was right and ready and made a motion on the council floor Feb. 17 to hold the March 3 meeting at the township hall. The aldermen concurred unanimously.

The council will convene at the township board of trustees at 8 p.m. tomorrow night and the city council meeting will immediately follow. Since the township and city boundaries are identical, the aldermen also serve as the city council trustees.

No decision has been reached on whether the council will hold additional meetings in the town hall after tomorrow night.

THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR. The annual quality excellence award of the Shasta Beverage Company was presented for the third consecutive year to representatives of the Granite City plant, located on Missouri Avenue, Friday morning. It is also the sixth time the award has been earned by the local plant during its existence. At left is Steve Miller, Midwest Region manager for Shasta, presenting the award to quality control department workers Carl Tanksley, Jerry Modrusic, supervisor, and Terry Jones. False rumors circulated on voter cards

Contrary to information being circulated concerning voter registration cards in the Venice area, voters must produce, upon demand by an election judge at the polls, their voter card, but the right portion of the double card need not be attached.

"Only the portion of the card which shows the voter's name, address and city of residence is needed and to be produced for the election judges," according to the office of Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles.

The right portion of the double card contains which ballots the voter is entitled to cast and is designed to be folded behind the left portion of the registration card for the voter's own election judge to see.

"It does not need to be attached or produced at the polls for the voter to be allowed to exercise his right to vote," the spokeswoman said.

650 attend Lincoln Day dinner

The largest crowd ever to attend the annual Madison County Lincoln Day dinner came to the Louie & Clark Restaurant in East Alton Thursday night to honor the Republican Party and to hear special speaker General Al Knight, a security advisor to President Ronald Reagan.

Approximately 650 persons attended the event and listened to Gen. Knight's analysis of the country's military training.

Gen. Knight said his country is strength in a state of military weakness and reviewed some of the developments which led to the decline of the military.

However, our military has received many of the things which can be done to strengthen the military and said he sees "light at the end of the tunnel."

Don Weber, Madison County state's attorney, told addressed the large audience and gave an overview of what he feels have been his accomplishments in his first three months as state's attorney. Weber was enthusiastically received by the audience, the spokesman said.

Another special guest was Jim Edgar, Illinois secretary of state, who announced he will be a candidate for election in 1982, when he completes his current appointed term.

Edgar summarized his goals and said he hopes to maintain the office's reputation for integrity and for showing a good accounting for each tax dollar.

He said he is seeking highly qualified people to fill openings in his office, who are not affiliated with the military. Many openings are impossible, due to civil service regulations, but employees not giving their fullness to their jobs will be terminated and replaced by qualified individuals.

Edgar promised to stay in touch with the people of Madison County and asked for their support in the 1982 election.

State legislators included Sen. Dwight Fredericks and Frank Watson from the 55th District, Judy Bartule from the 49th District and Everett Steele from the 65th District. U.S. Congressman Paul Flory was unable to attend, but was represented by former newspaper reporter Doug Thompson, who now is an aide to the congressman. Thompson read a telegram from Flory.

The GOP spokesman summarized, "This was our most successful dinner ever. We had good speakers, good food, a good feeling and an atmosphere of hope."

RESTAURANT ARREST

Mrs. Glenda Stotter, 24, of 3115 N. Rockwood, was charged with battery at 12:25 a.m. Friday at Charlie's Restaurant after allegedly throwing beer and food on Haskell "Buck" Pivatt of Granite City staff.

She had asked him and another person to leave due to an allegedly loud argument at a restaurant table. She was released upon posting $35 bond.

District spelling bee March 7

Plans have been completed for the 5th annual Granite City School District Elementary School Spelling Bee to be held Saturday, March 7, at Coolidge Junior High School.

Each elementary school has selected a winner and a runner-up (alternate) in each of the three levels of participation: primary (second and third grades), lower intermediate (fourth and fifth grades) and upper intermediate (sixth grade).

As those building winners were chosen, they were presented ribbons by their principals. These school winners will compete with each other in the district spelling bee, at which the top three district-level winners and first runners-up will receive trophies. In addition to the trophy, each of the three district winners will receive a dictionary.

All sixth grade building winners are also eligible to compete in a metropolitan area spelling bee later this year.

The district spelling bee committee is under the chairmanship of Agnes P. Fryntz, principal of Parkview School.

Other committee members are Warren Collins, curriculum coordinator; Merna Musterman, gifted consultant; Arthur Menendez, principal; Mitchell M. Massie, teacher at Frohardt; Linda McDonnell, teacher at Parkview; and Mary Lou Schwab, teacher at Marshall.

Pronouncers for the bee will be Beverly Scroggins, teacher at South High School; Charlotte Griffith, teacher at Coolidge; Donna Clow, teacher and department head of English at Coolidge.

Acting as judges for the bee will be Carol Hildebrand, English Department head at Prather; Michael Sikora, principal; Coolidge Junior High; Shirley Stroud, teacher at North High; Carol Hornback, counselor at Coolidge; Jon Mullen, counselor at Grigsby and Jerry Rhodes, department head at North High.

The following building winners will participate in the bee. In the event that one or more is unable to present, the alternate will participate. In each case, the winner is listed first and the runner-up second.

Chouteau, Chouteau and Venes residents planning to move in their own home sewer lines should find out if there are water lines in the way, since the homeowners will be responsible for any repair necessitated by their digging in the water easements.

The Mitchell Public Water District issued a statement Friday that it is willing to put in a new home sewer line or contracting to have a line put in to first check the district's office.

745 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, determine where the district's water lines are before digging.

The precaution is being issued "because of the real possibility that the contractor will break the lines of the water district," according to the statement.

"The district will be happy to spot the existing water lines. The simple precaution of planning the installation of the sewer line in cooperation with the employees of the water district will save considerable time and expense to the property owners in the Mitchell area," the statement continues.

Every effort will be made to furnish information and assistance to the users of the water district. Failure to take advantage of this service may result in severe consequences for the property owner," it concludes.

The telephone number for the water company office is 931-0164 for those requiring additional information.

Chouteau, Chouteau and Venes residents planning to move in their own home sewer lines should find out if there are water lines in the way, since the homeowners will be responsible for any repair necessitated by their digging in the water easements.

The Mitchell Public Water District issued a statement Friday that it is willing to put in a new home sewer line or contracting to have a line put in to first check the district's office.

745 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, determine where the district's water lines are before digging.

The precaution is being issued "because of the real possibility that the contractor will break the lines of the water district," according to the statement.

"The district will be happy to spot the existing water lines. The simple precaution of planning the installation of the sewer line in cooperation with the employees of the water district will save considerable time and expense to the property owners in the Mitchell area," the statement continues.

Every effort will be made to furnish information and assistance to the users of the water district. Failure to take advantage of this service may result in severe consequences for the property owner," it concludes.

Future of GC—

Schuler has a broad range of experience in public life, including holding the top leadership position in the Bi-State Development Agency, the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission, and the East St. Louis Urbanized Area Policy Committee, which reviews Federal Aid to Urban Systems grants.

The mayor has been able to attract majority City Council backing for a wide range of projects, and the police, fire and ambulance staffs are regarded by many as functioning effectively despite severe financial constraints.

Partney stresses youthful vigor combined with business acumen, and a penchant for speaking his mind whenever he regards a proposal or action as being potentially adverse to the public interest.

On the negative side of Madison County governmental support, Partney has selected a "watchdog" role intended to encourage efficiency and economy. He promises that he would move aggressively to bolster job opportunities here.

Decatur pledges "the best of both worlds"—a combination of direct experience in municipal government, and willingness to alter existing procedures and practices to give increased attention to citizens' needs and wishes.

The alderman is generally regarded as being fulfilled his City Council and committee duties conscientiously, and says he would push for more effective follow-through by inspection and other staffs that report to the mayor. He promises to foster greater mobility for city employees.

Partney says he could work cooperatively with the elected street superintendent for improved city services and efficiency.

The elected superintendent for years has sided politically with the mayor, but Schuler, who blames the superintendent for ignoring voter, aldermanic and mayoral wishes for cleaner and safer streets.

Convinced that the street department's performance has been subpar, the public's image of Granite City, the mayor has sought through other officials and employees to monitor complaints and resolve them whenever possible by means that do not utilize the street staff.

The street superintendent, who reports to no one but the electorate, contends he is willing and able to enhance the city's appearance but sometimes is thwarted by insufficient funds and lack of rapport with the council. Partney takes the same view—that whatever deficiencies exist reflect on the council rather than the street department.

A silent factor in the 1981 campaign, as it was in 1977, is the fact that Partney's father, the late Donald Partney Sr., served as mayor and ten years later became a state senator in ill health, lost to Schuler in 1973. Some who voted for Schuler that year said they were favorable to Mayor Partney but feared that the senior alderman at that time, the late Walter Nonn, might be nominated.

The late mayor's sons have continued the Partney family's governmental and political involvement, aided by the political base of Alderman Nonn's widow, Margaret, who succeeded him as Fifth Ward alderman. The Partney residence, the Granite City Metal Co., is located in her ward.

Another silent campaign issue is speculation over whether the 1980s might bring a repeat of 1960s mayoral council clashes in which, if one alderman voted for a proposal, it seemed inevitable that another would oppose it.

Some say a renewal of "feuding, fussing and fighting" would wreck chances of orderly, constructive activity by the municipal government. Others say it would be healthy to have greater controversy, that ideas and habits need to be challenged to keep all officials and employees "on their toes." As Partney has phrased it in comment on the County Board, "People too often is a lack of dissent that could and should be questioned."

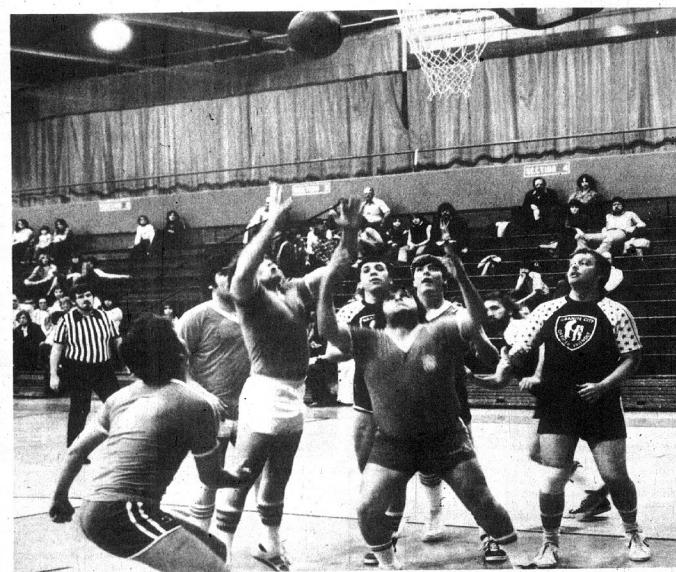

It is customary for those running against incumbents to find fault with what has transpired, and for years an effort has been made by the opposition group to portray Granite City officials as having been responsible for poor judgment or waste or ineptness—or worse—in other words, that the "ins" are the ones who would be weeding the dark holes in a typical political "hole in the wall."

In general, those "on the outside looking in" are accused of being the real villains, guilty of a meanness of spirit—such as having been responsible for poor judgment or waste or ineptness—or worse—in other words, that the "ins" are the ones who would be weeding the dark holes in a typical political "hole in the wall."

In both the 1977 and 1981 campaigns, Mayor Schuler has cited long lists of services and facilities that have been added or enhanced.

persons and then see that they produce or are fired. I don't recall anyone ever being fired from City Hall. We have even thought about having time clocks for City Hall employees."

Citing a community development project that encountered delays, Decatur said, "So many things in this city seem to get buried on the back burner. I see a path to the part of the city to complete anything. There are too many people to be doing."

He proposed to reduce costs and possibly payrolls, and to improve testing for fire and police hiring and promotion.

"The lower census means less motor fuel taxes and federal funds. It is going to take some ingenuity to provide the same services in future years. If it means less people working harder, that's what we'll do."

The Decatur campaign headed by Glen Hollis pictures the candidate as a man of "competence and character."

A mechanical engineer, Decatur is a past president of the Illinois Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors Association.

PAUL SCHULER—Wants to continue as the city's top official for a third term, and to continue other efforts to help the community, such as through a current role as a member of the Madison County Transit District Board.

(His appointment to the transit board, which hopes to improve bus service in the county, was opposed by Partney, who says the mayor has been inattentive to some of cities on various transit boards.) The mayor says Partney has had a poor attendance record at County Board meetings.

Schuler says his six years on the Park Board saw Wilson Park facilities expanded, including completion of the Iroquois amphitheater and recreation center; development of Worthen Park; development of Civic Park on the site of the former post office, and purchase of West Granite playground land.

"Most employees lack motivation. They need clear-cut job descriptions with incentives to do a good job. When you've been working in a department for five years and someone says, 'hey don't do this,' a political appointee with no experience and pay that appointee about the same amount you make. That takes away all incentive."

Police of three cities thwart alleged robber

A robbery charge was filed against Melvin D. Woolfolk, 22, of 1034 Douglas St., Venice, after he allegedly robbed Mary Donahue, 27, Harvey Place, to the pavement in front of the Kroger store at 12:45 p.m. Thursday and took her black purse containing $400.

The purse was found early in a yard in the 1000 block of Logan Street, Venice.

Bond was set at $5,000 cash and he was transferred Friday afternoon to the Madison County jail. When the robber fled in an auto, a description was relayed by Granite City police and the car was pursued the 700 block of Bissell Street, left onto W. 3rd Street, right into the 900 block of Franklin Avenue and then into a Bissell Street alley.

With Madison police behind the fleeing car, Venice police drove in front of it,迫使 it to leave the alley. The driver carried the purse and ran, ignoring two verbal orders to halt and also a warning shot.

Woolfolk was apprehended a few minutes later by Venice Police Chief Farris Smith. The purse was located a short time later.

OMICRON INITIATES ELIZABETH SLATE

Professor Chester Hansen has been inducted into the Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honor society for college students. Included was Elizabeth A. Slate, a junior philosophy major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin C. Slate Jr. of Granite City.

OKD recognizes those who have earned a high standard of efficiency in collegiate activities. To qualify for membership, a student must show exemplary character, real leadership and service in campus life, superior scholarship, genuine fellowship and conscientious to democratic ideals.

automatic traffic signals for emergency vehicles, modernization of the city's shelter and sidewalk construction, an equal start of preparations for new public buildings.

Also in 1973-77, the upgrading of employee pay, a brighter and more attractive appearance of buildings, completion of several pocket parks, improved traffic patterns, growth in overall employment, demolition of hazardous buildings, and increased cooperation by the mayor's office with aldermen, city departments and the state and federal governments.

The Army veteran, a former Retail Clerk and United Steelworker who is active in many local organizations, has resided on the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council. He is convinced his second term as mayor also brought many improvements.

He cited construction of the new police headquarters and civil service office, extensive reconstruction work on 19th Street overpass to connect downtown with West Granite and Illinois Route Three, additional street lighting, annual city-wide clean-up programs, construction of the new Granite City township building, telephone system, street and paramedic services, provision of $10 million in mortgage revenue bonds to provide low-interest home loans, and establishment of a library annex.

Also in 1977-81, a new fire department "motorized" truck and rescue vehicle, summer painting of over 50 homes for senior citizens and low-income families, simultaneously providing work for young people and union members, completion of Maryville Road, $1.5 million in other street projects, reconstruction of all major railroad crossings, cooperation in expansion of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, lowering of city health, life and major medical insurance costs, and use of township revenue funds for basketball and soccer field lights, Granite City High School North bleachers and Wilson Park playground equipment.

Mayor Schuler also cooperated with the City Council and industrial leaders in the financing of new or expanded buildings, such as for Midwest Metals, Ferrell Corp., R & R Leasing, Battery Recyclers, Pre-Coal Metals, Granite City Steel, Nestle Corp., Prairie City Steel, and Wilson Park.

Storm drill tomorrow

The Illinois State Police, in conjunction with the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency and the National Weather Service, will broadcast a special tornado drill message to all police agencies in the 42.5 MHz radio band at 10 a.m. central standard time, Tuesday, March 3.

The purposes of the drill are to provide an opportunity for all those charged with protection from tornadoes to review their plans for tornado preparedness.

To test the operation of those plans in a local simulation exercise, those plans as necessary to insure efficient operation should a tornado actually threaten during the coming season.

Captain Glenn H. Huffman, commander of the Granite City Police District Eleven, suggests that the public turn on radio and television stations for further instructions in the event of an actual tornado.

To help prepare for the 1981 tornado season, State Superintendent of Education Donald Gill has urged schools to participate in the statewide tornado drill at 10 a.m. tomorrow. All students and school personnel to respond quickly to an approaching tornado, every school should have a tornado preparedness plan that outlines safety procedures.

The importance of knowing safety procedures is dramatized by the fact that Illinois leads the nation in deaths caused by tornadoes," Gill said.

For the tornado drill, school officials will have an opportunity to evaluate the effectiveness of their tornado preparedness plans, he added.

Illinois is geographically located at the Northeast edge of the most tornado-prone region of the world.

Since 1950, an average of 25 tornadoes have touched down across the state annually, although there have been as few as four in 1952 and 1953 and as many as 107 in 1974.

ALTER DATE OF MAISON MEETING

The regular meeting of the Madison City Council has been changed from Tuesday evening to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday to allow the city officials to attend the sectional basketball game pitting Madison against Vandalia at Vandala.

BILLBOARD ENDORSED

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals had recommended that Roland Bade, executor of the estate of the late John Bade, be granted a special use permit and a variation to erect an 80-foot-tall sign on his property, due to the exceptional brutality of the crime, but defense counsel John Rokowski contended, "Vengeance is not the job of the court."

Circuit Judge Philip Phillips denied the previously dismissed charges of deviate sexual assault, armed robbery and aggravated battery against Chepely in connection with the 30-year-old case, which he argued was proper and ordered Chepely incarcerated.

30-year sentence in rape, robbery

A 30-year prison sentence was imposed Friday to Anthony James Albert Chepely, 22, of the 2000 block of Ohio Avenue, who pleaded guilty Jan. 12 (to attempted murder and rape).

Chepely was sentenced in connection with the beating and rape of a 17-year-old Pontoon Beach girl in a vacant house in the same block as Chepely's home Sept. 27, 1980.

It was alleged that Chepely met the girl at his home where she met his mother. They then walked to a vacant house nearby where he allegedly held a knife to her throat, threatened to kill her and beat her "repeatedly with a belt."

After several hours, he allegedly bound her, raped her again and took her ring and about $12 cash before leaving her bound and nude, investigators said. Chepely told investigators he thought the victim was dead when he left her, police alleged.

The next morning, the victim managed to kick out a window and attract the attention of a neighbor, who called authorities. She was hospitalized in serious condition after the attack, but is recuperating.

Chepely was arrested at his home and police alleged finding his girl's ring in his trousers pocket.

Assistant State's Attorney Richard Rybak argued Friday that the court should impose a 60-year sentence, double the maximum for rape, due to the exceptional brutality of the crime, but defense counsel John Rokowski contended, "Vengeance is not the job of the court."

Circuit Judge Philip Phillips denied the previously dismissed charges of deviate sexual assault, armed robbery and aggravated battery against Chepely in connection with the 30-year-old case, which he argued was proper and ordered Chepely incarcerated.

March 10 registration deadline for city vote

Madison County this week will enter into the final phase of voter registration in preparation for the consolidated city-township elections that will be held April 7. Deadline to register to qualify to vote in the election is March 10.

During the past month, Circuit Clerk Evelyn Bowles' office at Edwardsville has been conducting a series of special voter registration periods throughout the county. Many of these have been held in the Quad-City area.

Six such centers will be held in this area during the next eight days to complete the registration process.

Edwardsville: Granite City (Trust) Bank, 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., March 6.

Cohen's Foods, 2301 Illinois Ave., noon to 5 p.m., March 7.

East Park Improvement Association, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., March 7.

Madison City Hall, noon to 7 p.m., March 10.

Verde City Hall, noon to 7 p.m., March 10.

Pontoon Beach Village Hall, 3910 Highway 111, noon to 7 p.m., March 10.

Name Journal newspapers in wage, hour complaints

Fourteen tornadoes hit Illinois in 1980. Each of the 102 counties has been hit at least once during the past three decades and eight have had over 20. Cook, 36; McLean, 36; Sangamon, 31; Champaign, 25; Madison, 22; Henry, 22; and Will, 21.

The months of April, May and June account for 50 percent of all the tornadoes recorded since 1950.

Although the life of a tornado is short and its destructive path small, while it is in progress a tornado can cause considerable destruction of property and heavy loss of life.

The rotary winds of a tornado can exceed 300 miles per hour, and they are capable of destroying solid buildings.

A tornado can make deadly missiles out of innocent items such as a piece of straw. It can uproot large trees, and crush people, animals and heavy machinery for hundreds of yards, authorities say.

Complaints filed by the St. Louis Newspaper Guild with the National Labor Relations Board and the U.S. Department of Labor against the Southern Illinois Journal newspapers of Southern Illinois alleging unfair labor practices do not include the Granite City Journal, a spokesman there said Friday.

The Guild, a union of news workers and related newspaper employees, has filed the complaints against Donnelly Publications, Inc.'s Metro-East newspaper group, which includes the Journal in Collinsville, Edwardsville, Belleville, Fairview Heights, East St. Louis, Mascoutah and Clinton County.

Not included in this group are the Granite City and the Wood River Journals and the Belthalt and Alton Citizen newspapers, which are owned by Birkemeyer, he said.

"Currently, nothing is happening here," the Granite City Journal spokesman said, adding that the employees of that newspaper are "not a part of the group involved in the current strike."

Guild organizing efforts has resulted in a two-count complaint on file with the National Labor Relations Board. The complaint alleges that certain employees were fired because of their unionization activities, and asks for a finding of automatic recognition of the St. Louis Newspaper Guild as the bargaining agent for employees of the Journal newspapers of Southern Illinois.

Asked if Collinsville Journal employees are involved in the organizational effort, Editor Lisa Ganssle said, "Yes, we are, and have been for some time."

She noted that the Southern Illinois Labor Tribune carried a brief item about the organizing effort about two weeks ago, but "it was brief indeed."

She said that all of the statements made in the Editorial Tribune and in Friday's Globe-Democrat were accurate, although "there's more to it, but all the information in the story is accurate."

The Globe said the move is apparently to grow into a full-fledged effort to organize Donnelly Publications, Inc. employees on both sides of the river. It said many of them have long complained about low pay, long working hours, and other job issues.

Robert A. Steinke, executive secretary of the St. Louis Newspaper Guild, has been quoted as saying,

"We're hoping to be successful over there, because it will lead to the possibility of organizing the Journals in St. Louis, Jefferson and St. Charles Counties which are presently unorganized."

Boil water order lifted

Residents of Madison, Eagle Park, Cloverleaf and Tri-City Park areas were without water on Wednesday over the weekend by the Illinois-American Water Co., but the boil order was lifted Sunday afternoon.

According to Robert Jackson, district manager for the company, problems with the valve system between the East St. Louis and Granite City districts caused the water in the affected areas to become cloudy and discolored, which necessitated the boil order.

Chlorine and bacteriological tests were taken Friday, but the bacteriological test required a 24-hour period before the results were available. The test showed that no health problem existed, but a second test was taken as a precautionary measure.

The results of that test, received Sunday afternoon, confirmed the initial test results and the boil order was lifted for the affected areas.

No explanation for heavy stock trading

Post Corporation said last week it has no information that would explain recent heavy trading in its stock.

A company spokesman said the firm was informed shortly after noon Feb. 24 that the American Stock Exchange had halted trading in the stock.

"We have absolutely no idea why this unusual trading has taken place," the spokesman said.

He added the company is not holding talks with any other company regarding possible merger or acquisition, has no knowledge of any pending research report on the firm, and has no knowledge of any individual or institution accumulating shares.

He added that management knows of no development in the company's business that would warrant unusual interest in its stock.

Dudley was truly happy with the victory, but more pleased with the prospects for the future. The current 1980-81 Cougar cagers don't have single senior on the team as Funneman's shot dropped through.

Joseph. They are nearly equal in scoring ability and are team players. Against St. Joseph, each hit for 18 points.

Most promising for the future was the boy from Teutopolis, the Cougars' first year forward, Bob Gray, a star last season's Illinois state Class A champion Luther South team. Of the SIUE lineup for the past two games, the Cougars' got off the bench at the start of the second half and hit on four of seven shots to pace the Cougar's rally to overtake St. Joseph. The Pumas held a 48-42 lead at halftime.

But back came the Steamers. They took a 3-2 lead at the 40 second mark of the fourth quarter when Stremelau scored a power play goal from Ty Keough. It wasn't enough. Chicago tied it on another short-handed goal by Kitson at 5:27, setting up the Chicago ace's heroics late in the game.

There was no scoring in the second quarter and the score was knotted 1-1 at halftime.

After 15 seconds into the third quarter, former SIUE Edwardsville Cougar Bob Bozada scored his first MISL goal from an assist by teammate Yilmaz Orhan.

But Chicago Gino Smith hit on four of the next six shots from the bench to give the Cougars a 10-5 lead. The Pumas held a 48-42 lead at CHAMPAIGN — Granite City South, which entered its first state wrestling team championship since 1965 were dashed here Saturday and the wrestling Warriors finished just out of the trophy race at the State Class AA Wrestling Tournament at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall.

South, which entered the second day of competition in first place overall, the team started and finished in fifth place after all the dust had settled Saturday night. South led Joliet West 29-27 after the first day of wrestling. But Joliet came on like gangbusters in the second day, taking backbacks and championship round bouts to win the team championship with 69½ points. Proviso East finished second with 62. Glenbard North and Riverdale tied for third with 49½ points each. South finished with 43, just ahead of Oak Park-River Forest with 42½. Granite City North finished with seven points.

South's best performers were Tom Anderson, who finished second at 155 pounds (see related story) and Greg Garland, who won the fifth place bout at 119 pounds. No other Granite City wrestler placed in his semifinal bout.

Perkins had a little better luck in his semifinal appearance. He beat Tom Anderson of Joliet West 9-6. Eventual 155 pound champion Paul Coco of Palos Heights Shepard beat Arnold Barron of Palos 8-4 in his semifinal bout.

Veteran South head coach Red Schmitt said he wasn't surprised by his good showing at the Finals. "I expected to be up here all season," he said. "I wanted to place, too. But I really didn't know if I could be happy with what I did."

What Garland did was win a heart-stopper for his fifth-place medal. In the finals, he edged Keith Reed of Danville 11-10 to finish the season at 35-4. Reed finished at 36-4.

Garland, who started the championship morning in hopes of giving South two championship finalists that night, was beaten by Garland. Garland dropped a close 4-0 decision to Tom Vicker of Glenbard West 11-10. Vicker had a 10-0 record.

"I thought the heavyweight Bruce Monahan would probably give us some points, and I thought that maybe a 185 pound Jimi Fingal would give us more. But it just wasn't in the books. A different move here or there and we could be carrying home some hardware."

South's fifth place finish was the highest for any Press-Record area team since 1965 when Granite City tied with Oak Lawn Reavis for the championship. Ironically, it took only two team points each to win the title. That many points would have placed them in 14th place at this year's meet. (However, there were more wrestlers advancing to state now than in 1965.)

But Granite City North, which sent five wrestlers to the State Finals, wasn't as fortunate. Two of the Steelers' hopefuls for individual titles had been ousted in the first round, and the other three were thrown into the wrestleback division after the first round of competition Friday.

North's 112-pounder, Gerald Miller, making his third State Final appearance, was victimized by the luck of the draw. He saw his 35-1-0 season ended by Steve DuVall of Batavia in the first round. Miller had done a 10-0 record and boy, did DuVall los in the quarterfinals, thus not giving Miller a chance to get into the wrestlebacks.

In first round wrestleback action Saturday, Granite City's Mike Robinson 2-1 at 88 pounds, Steve Smith of North beat Chris Brooks of Oswego 3-2 at 119. Steve DeJardif of Joliet West beat South's Jimi Fingal 8-3. DeJardif of South beat Kevin Henehan of Niles 7-6 at 132, and Arnold Barnett of Rock Island beat North's Scott Corey at 155.

Schmitt felt the Lardupus loss was a "big point" in his team's title hopes. "It was the key," he said. "Because it was to the team chasing us. You could see the momentum shift."

Keith Cruise of Cahokia won this area's only title Saturday. He won the heavyweight title with an 11-6 win over James Irons of Bloom Trail.

Friday, Irons pulled off a major upset when he upset defending state champion Taylor of Palos 7-2. Taylor was the only wrestler to beat Cruise this season.

Perkins is ready for a rematch with the champ

CHAMPAIGN — Dean Perkins stood in the dark runway at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall. Nearby, the crowd of over 10,000 roared for the winning team's final bout still going on, but for Perkins it was over.

Perkins wrestled as many bouts this season as was possible, 37. And he was all of them but one. And that was the last one, the state 155 pound championship bout which he lost 5-4 to defending state champion Paul Coco of Palos Heights Shepard here Saturday night. The loss meant that Perkins' dream of being state champion was not to be. It was the winning team's final bout still going on, but for Perkins it was over.

Despite the loss, Perkins was still the one to beat, as one might think. "The main thing I wanted was to get to the finals," he said. "But when I got there, I wanted to win that one too."

Perkins trailed 5-4 for the last full minute and a half of the bout. A simple escape would have tied it and perhaps sent it into overtime. But Coco escaped against wrestlers the caliber of Coco are far from easy. His final record this season was 39-0. Was he the toughest wrestler Perkins faced this season?

"I guess so," chuckled Perkins. "He's the only one who beat me."

"I could have escaped anytime I wanted," said Perkins. "But I wasn't going for a tie. I wanted to win in regulation. I didn't want overtime. But I waited too late." As the buzzer sounded ending the bout, Perkins was in the process of escaping. It just didn't work.

"I wouldn't mind wrestling him again sometime," said Perkins. "I know I can beat him. He ain't God. He's got two arms and two legs just like everybody else."

Had Perkins been able to win the championship, it could have conceivable sent South home with the third place trophy. But it would have had to be by a fall or a major or superior decision. In a tie, a tie decision, South would have finished one-half point out of third place (see related story).

"I think Dean was a little out-classed," said South head coach Sam DeJardif. "He's not a super fitness wrestler. He can be physical, but Coco is a little more muscular. I thought a couple times Dean was just plain overpowered. I think Dean wanted to be the last one standing."

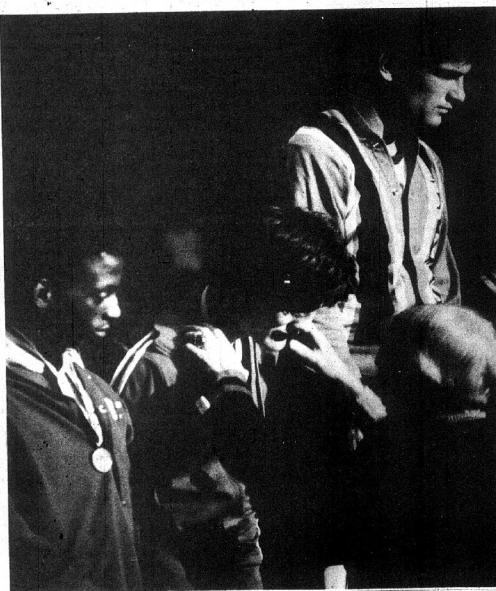

"His brother (Sam) was the last finalist we had up here in (1979) and he got stuck with a cradle early. I think Dean wanted to improve on the family record."

"There's one move in the State Finals, one little move can make you or break you. Dean's match was one of those times."

Was Dean really thinking about his brother Sam when he got hit in the head against Coco? "Nope," he said matter-of-factly, shaking his head. "Sam was the farthest thing from my mind out there."

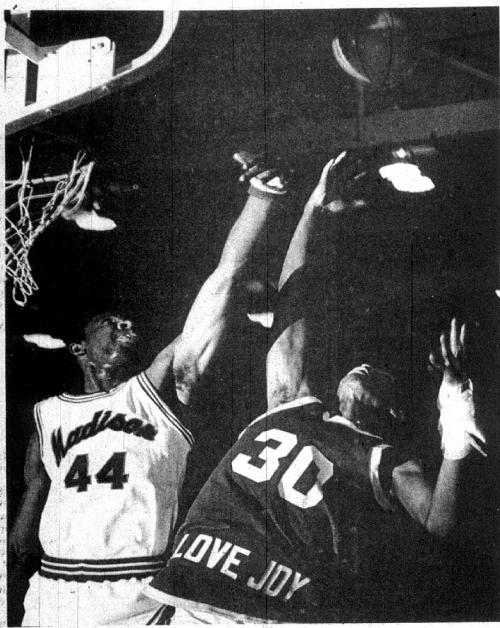

The Perkins ends an outstanding high school wrestling career. After losing his first bout at the State Finals as a freshman, he finished third in his weight class the next two years, before finally making it to the semis in the semis Saturday.

"You know, Dean's about eight pounds under the 155 pound limit," said Schmitt. "He could have wrestled at 160 this year. I think 155 was better for him in the long run. Who knows, he might not have done as well at 145. At any rate, he represented himself, the team and the community very well up here."

NARRATION of a push-button radio set is presented at Frohardt school's PTA meeting by Dennis Winn, while Cubmaster Jim Colp is behind him. Various Cub Dens presented a skit at the meeting.

Cub Pack 22 entertains Frohardt PTA meeting

At last week's Frohardt School PTA meeting, the program was presented by Frohardt School Cub Pack 22. Cub Pack 22 Webelos Aaron Colp, Joey Hinnen, Eric Thornsberry, Bryan Yates, Mike McConnell, Scott Moore, Craig Sykes and Dennis Winn opened the meeting with the presentation of the colors and the pledge of allegiance.

President Gary Piroender and PTA President Gary Piroender conducted the business meeting. He turned the meeting over to PTA Vice President Dennis Petruo, who introduced Cubmaster Jim Colp. Colp introduced the Cub Pack 22 leaders; Committee Chairmen Pam Winn, Lee Winn, Stan Toth, Den 2 Leader Jo Toth (also Den 2 leader), and Webelos Leader Lee Winn. Webelos, led by Lee Winn and Jim Colp, Aaron Colp, Joey Hinnen, Eric Thornsberry, Bryan Yates, Mike McConnell, Scott Moore, Craig Sykes, and Dennis Winn presented four skits to show how the Webelos den is the sportman, athlete, and engineer activity badges. The Webelos then put on a skit entitled "Push-Button Radio", to show how you can't always believe what you hear.

Den 3 cubs, led by Jo Toth, Richard Harmon, Harold Krohne, Chris Mouldon, and Steve Toth and Den 2 Cubs, Andy Popovsky and Kelly Schaefer, participated in a pinewood derby race. Den 1 Cubs, led by Stan Hoffman, Bill Cathay, Mat Cook, Jeff Fasick, Chris Hoffman, Eric Thornsberry, and Bryan Yates put on an Indian skit. Den 1 Cubs, their fathers and their leader, went to Cahokia Mound park to search for the Indian village for the skit. The scenery was made by Stan Hoffman. Jennifer Hoffman served as the stage hand for the skit. The skit told the story of the Indians that lived in this region in the 1500's.

After the audience gave a round of applause to all the Cub Scouts, the meeting was turned over to Gary Piroender. Since Frohardt School PTA sponsors Cub Pack 22, PTA President Gary Piroender presented a $250 check to the Webelos den to show the PTA support of the Cub Scouts. The meeting was then adjourned to the cafeteria where refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cuppett

Cuppett-DeHart

Miss Valerie Lynn DeHart, daughter of Mrs. Margie DeHart, 7305 Northern Drive, Belleville, and the late Alvin DeHart, became the bride of Stephen Cuppett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Cuppett, 120 Central Ave., on Nov. 14 at the First Church of the Nazarene in Collinsville.

Rev. William Chenuah officiated at the 7 o'clock double ring ceremony. Brass candelabras and arrangements of white, pink and purple flowers were placed on either side of the alter.

A program of nuptial music was pre-recorded and presented by the bride and groom. Peggy Hall was the pianist. Cheri Reynolds played the harp.

Soloists included Donna Reis and Dennis Cuppett, who sang, "More Than 'True Love,'" "Grateful Deep," "Longer Than 'True Love,'" "The Lord's Prayer," "One Hand, One Walk Alone."

Exorted to the altar by her grandfather, Marvin Duff, the bride wore her mother's two piece wedding gown of ivory satin and lace.

The gown was complemented with a satin princess style redingote with self covered buttons at the waistline of the snug bodice and featured a standing portrait collar outlined in the low neckline.

Her veil of silk was secured to a picture hat of Chantilly lace and a spray of white seed pearls. She carried an ivory fox fur muff trimmed with a cascade of silk pink and eggshell tea roses, violet and stephanias.

Matron of honor and bridesmaids included Cindy Tippy, Becky Casey, Jackie and Sherrie Cuppett.

They chose identical style silk polyester gowns of bright lavender featuring draped necklines, slit sleeves and peplums that tied at the waist over softly flowing skirts.

The flower girl, Kim Cuppett, was escorted by Darren Cuppett, and Eric Cuppett served as the ringbearer.

She wore a long lavender frock enhanced with an ivy lace trim on the bodice. She held a fur muff with a cluster of blossoms attached and wore matching flowers in her hair.

The groom chose his bride, Dan Cuppett, as best man.

DuWayne Cuppett, Dennis Casey, Kevin Mestel, Terry Trusky, Doug Cutright, Kirksey and Steve Boze completed the rings of honor and ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. DeHart selected a dusty rose gown and the groom's mother was attired in a teal blue dress. Both wore silk rose corsages.

Janice Kirksey attended the guest book and wedding programs were distributed by Linda Boze and Brenda Mestel.

A reception was held at the Winstanley Baptist Church hall and the rehearsal dinner was held at the groom's parents' at Roustou's Restaurant in Collinsville.

The newlywed couple is residing in University Park, Pa., following a honeymoon trip to the Riviera, Jamaica.

A 1977 graduate of Belleville Township High School West, the bride also graduated from Hickory School of Business. She is employed as a legal secretary and taught at Franklin High School.

The groom is a 1975 graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Chemistry-Biology. He began graduate study at SIU and received his Master of Science Degree in February.

Cuppert will continue his graduate work at Pennsylvania State University, according to his wife.

He is the son of Mrs. George W. Johnson of Minneapolis, Minn. A 1975

Ladies Coterie
meet at church

A program on American Heritage including illustrated slides was presented by Mrs. Don Worley, guest speaker, at the February meeting of the Ladies Coterie.

Mrs. G. Cooley introduced the speaker and Mrs. John Gordon, president, was in charge of the Ladies Coterie.

The club coffee was given by George Foster, the prayer was led by Mrs. John Kenner and Mrs. George Filicoff gave the pledge to the flag.

Officers gave their reports and discussion was held on the May installation party, with final arrangements to be announced later.

Members agreed to sponsor a vocal student from South High School as the club project for the year.

Those honored on their birthdays included Mrs. Fred Haug, Mrs. Virginia John and Mrs. Emmett Beeler.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John serving as hostess and Mrs. Haug to provide the program, it was announced.

A dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. E. J. Graeff and the program was led by Mesdames T. C. Aufderheide, Joseph Bilbrey, Clarence Boettiger, Jack Cormier, Marvin Eddington, James Fox, David Fried, Fred Graeff, Marvin Graeff, Floyd Henley, Ray Horn, Charles Kohl, C. L. Louis, Louis Meek, B. S. Miller, E. F. Reiske, A. C. Stoever, Dawson Wade and Fred Werner.

St. John United Church
Lenten services set

Pastor Sheldon Culver announces the theme for the 1981 Lenten season at St. John United Church of Christ, 2901 Namaka Road, will be "Unto Thee Hast Blessed Me."

It will be a six-week study dealing with biblical and contemporary individuals including Jacob, Jeremiah, Simon Peter, and David, Barnabas.

The Lenten program of Lent will be observed at an Ash Wednesday worship service on March 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. A hymn-sing will precede the service and a Lenten Wednesday service at 7:15 p.m.

"Turn Ye Even To Me,"

by Parker

by Harkner, will be sung by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Alan Milster and all communion will be celebrated by the minister.

Vocal soloists scheduled to sing at Wednesday services are Debby and Dolores Koenig, Ken Gaines, Linda Gaines, Jennifer Sage and Veronica Suess.

Meatless potluck dinners will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall preceding the hymn-sings on March 11, 23 and April 1.

Rev. Culver will be assisted by Michael Weaver, Eden Seminary student pastor, at the weekly services.

Henry D. Karandjeff—courage of his convictions

Illinois Banker magazine

Seven years ago a young man of 21 started to work for the United States from Smardesh, Macedonia, a country which is now part of Greece.

He settled in an industrial town in central Illinois along the Mississippi River which was populated with people of various nationalities due to the amount of industry in the area.

The boy decided that his fortune might be made in the railroad industry, so he journeyed north.

He took a job in a lumber mill, but quit to return from the railroad. But eventually he returned home and was faced with the real decision of choosing a profession.

"As a youngster, my father had a shoe factory. In fact, once he let me 'build' a shoe from scratch," said the man. His eyes sparkled as he remembered.

"He gave me three choices. I could be either a minister, a doctor or a banker, so naturally, I chose banker."

He put on my new blue serge suit and went for an interview at a local bank which had just opened Dec. 10, 1910.

He was hired on Aug. 3, 1911, to replace a stenographer and a janitor and I agreed to start for $30 per month. After 15 days, my pay increased to $35."

Today this mild mannered gentleman is the chairman and president of his own bank, American Heritage Bank of Granite City, which opened on March 19, 1959. The newspaper ad announcing the opening hangs framed in the bank's lobby.

"In the honorary chairman of the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, where I started my career. Now, I take great pleasure in seeing my son Ernest and grandson Ernest Jr. run that bank," said Henry D. Karandjeff.

Five years after Henry joined Granite City Trust and Savings, he was promoted to assistant cashier. He was made trust officer in 1925 and executive vice-president and cashier in 1933, becoming president in 1935.

Henry's office is located in a corner of the main floor of the bank to the left of the teller area and is separated from the main lobby by an action partition which is kept open.

On a paperweight on Henry's desk is a quote from Charles Evans Hughes: "You have to have courage with your convictions, convictions without bigotry, and charity without condescension."

His desk faces a wall covered with framed certificates, photographs and awards he has accumulated in his long life of service to his community and the banking industry.

One large framed certificate designates Henry as the oldest continuing county chairman of the U.S. Savings Bond division in the country, having begun in Pearl Harbor.

He is the recipient of the Department of the Treasury Award for 30 years' patriotic service in the U.S. Savings Bond program from 1941-1971.

Henry was present at the signing of the "new" Illinois Banking Act in 1955.

In 1955 Henry was elected president of the Illinois Bankers Association. He had been active in association work for 20 years prior to his election as president.

He served as president of group 9 of the Madison County Federation and chairman of both the committee on education and public relations and the committee on declaration of policy.

He also served on the committees on bank management and "Your Illinois Banks," was involved with the Illinois Bankers School and had been a member of the committee on legislation.

When Henry first became involved with the IBA, there were only federations and he was instrumental in planning the group structure.

"Because some counties were so small, one county federation would merge with another. We thought we could have more programs at the regional level because more bankers from different areas could come together and share ideas."

"We saw the function of the groups to be a combination of the professional and the social, because many directors and employees of banks need a day off every year and we saw that."

Henry is an ardent community banker and is glad to see the IBA working to preserve the unit banking system in the area. He feels that education is also an important function of the IBA.

"We should offer as much education and information to bankers as possible to help make them better bankers, so they can help their communities in every way possible."

"A person in a community, using the wealth within that community, can do more for the community because that person knows the people."

"It's a privilege to identify yourself with your community."

"There are certain responsibilities that come with handling people's financial affairs. Bankers have something to give."

"They are community leaders and today's bankers owe it to those bankers who preceded us to maintain our responsibility to our community."

Involvement in community affairs has always been important to the Karandjeff family.

Henry's grandson, Ernest Jr., who was recently elected president of the Granite City Area Chamber of Commerce, represents the third generation of Karandjeffs to serve as Chamber president.

Henry's community involvement has not been limited to the Chamber.

He has served as president of the local United Fund, the Planning Commission, the Optimist Club, YMCA, Men-the Health Society and Masonic Temple Association.

He was active for many years and was recognized for his participation in a program for the needy by the Salvation Army.

Many awards and certificates of recognition hang on Henry's wall in connection with his years of service to the local Boy Scout program.

He was instrumental in establishing a camp in Missouri through his negotiations with local philanthropists.

Church activities have also played an important part in Henry's active life.

He has been a Sunday school teacher and was the fourth original member of the local First United Presbyterian Church.

A few years ago, Henry was made moderator of the Presbytery, an association of churches in the South Central area.

The moderator functions as a kind of president of that association.

Among other awards, Henry was honored by the Boy Scouts of America in connection with one of his favorite projects—the establishment of Horseshoe Lake State Park.

A bill was signed designating the site as a state park on Oct. 15, 1969, and in 1977, a resolution was passed by the Illinois Senate changing the name of the park to the Henry D. Karandjeff State Park.

Henry was also named Man of the Year by Southern Illinois University, a great honor for a man with limited formal education.

In addition, Henry has been honored for his work in the community. Henry Karandjeff, And despite his busy schedule, he always managed to find time to devote to his children.

Some years ago, he took his three sons and nine grandchildren on a 14-country tour of Europe.

A tall young man "a few years past 60" runs a bank in Granite City, participates in church activities and civic and professional organizations, and looks forward to taking his great-grandchildren to Europe.

Experts advise dieters not to skip breakfast

Now, more than ever, Americans are encouraged to be slim, trim and physically fit. Never before have exercise and diet been stressed to such an extent as necessary for a healthy life-style.

As a result, thousands of Americans are jogging, swimming, playing tennis or racquetball, and trying to cut calories.

While the trend is an encouraging one, many people tend to overexert themselves or adopt unhealthy eating habits in order to maintain a slim appearance.

The advice of health experts should be heeded. Strenuous exercise should not be undertaken without first consulting a physician, and weight watching should not involve skipping meals or completely eliminating any one of the four food groups from the diet.

Despite such warnings, many people continue to take drastic measures to lose weight. One of the most common tendencies among dieters is to skip meals. And the most frequently neglected meal happens to be the most important—breakfast.

As children, we were taught that a good breakfast was necessary for a good start to the day. The same is true today: a balanced breakfast improves our thinking, our attitudes and the level of activity we are able to undertake. There is also evidence indicating that calories consumed early in the day are most quickly burned off. In fact, a recent study has shown that consuming 2,000 calories at breakfast rather than at dinner can result in weight loss as great as 2½ pounds in one week.

One reason that dieters may skip breakfast, or omit some items from their breakfast menu, is the misconceptions that exist about the calorie content of certain breakfast foods. A closer examination of the calorie counts for various breakfasts, shown below, reveals that some foods are lower or higher in calories than might be expected.

In addition, a number of new, lower-calorie food products have come on the market to broaden the choices of those concerned with their weight.

One of these is Aunt Jemima Lite, a reduced calorie pancake syrup recently introduced by The Quaker Oats Company. With one-third fewer calories than other leading syrups, Aunt Jemima Lite enables people to enjoy pancakes and syrup for fewer calories than they may have imagined was possible.

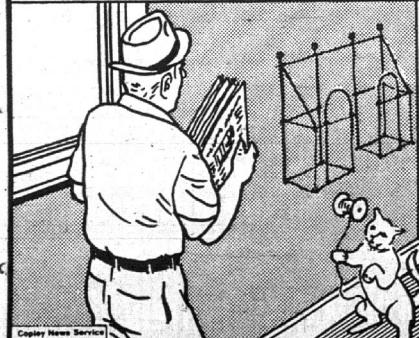

Following are the calorie contents of various breakfast menus for comparison:

ALEX IN WONDERLAND

by Bob Cordray

Pre-packaged by nature, the marvelous egg is a foodstuff in a class by itself

It's difficult to imagine what cooking would be like without the egg. Not only are eggs versatile and nutritious in their own right, but they're also essential ingredients in a countless number of foods: soufflés, mayonnaise, quiche, cakes and meatloaf, for example.

Miracle of nature

Eggs are truly miracles of nature. They're rich in protein and contain every vitamin except vitamin C, and many minerals, too. As if this weren't enough, they also include such important nutrients as choline and lecithin. The multitudinous uses of eggs in food preparation include:

- Thickening—Adding a beaten egg to soups and sauces, for instance, will cause them to thicken, because of the coagulating action of the heat on the egg.

- Suspension—The best-known and most commonly used suspension is mayonnaise—the raw yolk of the egg, when it's blended with oil or butter, is responsible for the success of this staple.

- Binding—Raw egg will hold together such dishes as hamburger, meatloaf or vegetable cutlets or croquettes.

- Glazing—A beaten egg mixed with water can be brushed onto bread or pastry before baking, resulting in a lovely shiny on the finished product.

- Leavening—Eggs, when added to batters, contribute to their rising during baking.

- Meringues—An elegant topping for pies, ice cream and a multitude of other sins, egg white beaten with a little cream of tartar and sugar will rise to gloriously light peaks of white froth.

Meringue, piped through a pastry bag, can be shaped into intricate designs to decorate the surface of the dessert in question.

In some dishes, such as soufflés, egg whites are beaten until stiff, then folded in gently to aerate the mixture.

Versatility, plus

As an end in themselves, eggs provide an almost endless variety of dishes, from down-home basics to the height of elegance.

They can be hard or soft boiled, scrambled, poached, served sunny-side up, coddled, fried, shirred or deviled.

Name your filling

They can be made into light-as-air omelettes, either plain or stuffed with such delectables as cheese, broccoli, asparagus, ham, tomatoes or fines herbes. Omelette-making, in fact, is virtually an art unto itself.

Then, there's the favorite of children of all ages, French toast, bread coated with beaten egg and sprinkled with sugar and cinnamon, before being fried in butter. It's served with additional goodies—maple syrup or jam, for instance.

Classic combination

One of the classic egg dishes of all time is Eggs Benedict, a savory combination of poached eggs, ham and bread, topped with hollandaise sauce, itself a "child of the egg."

Eggs Florentine, another classic, perches poached eggs on top of a bed of cooked spinach. Mornay sauce, a rich white sauce based on Bechamel with grated cheese added, is poured over the concoction for a perfect finishing touch.

One of the most basic—and yet one of the most versatile—egg dishes is egg salad. It's ideal for lunch—it goes into a sandwich with ease and will sit on a buffet table with aplomb.

Variations on a theme

And, there are as many variations on the basic dish as there are for just about any dish that's known to man. Here are two, from the American Egg Board, that are sure to perk up your taste buds.

The first makes use of a variety of Oriental vegetables, combined to make a low-calorie treat that's sure to please. The second hails from "South of the Border," and is great to take along on a picnic.

Makes ½ cup.

ORIENTAL DRESSING

½ cup low-calorie French dressing
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons soy sauce

Combine all ingredients. Cover and chill until ready to serve.

Makes ½ cup.

GUACAMOLE EGG SALAD SANDWICHES

5 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
½ cup thinly-sliced celery
½ cup thawed avocado dip or fresh avocado, mashed
2 tablespoons finely chopped green onions and tops
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
8 slices whole wheat bread, buttered
4 thin slices tomato

Reserve 8 hard-cooked egg slices; chop remaining eggs.

Add celery, avocado, onion, lemon juice and salt to eggs.

Stir until blended.

Spread ½ cup mixture on each of 4 bread slices.

Top with a tomato slice and two egg slices.

Top with remaining bread slices.

Makes 4 sandwiches.

SLIMMING EASTERN EGG SALAD makes a perfect lunch-on-the-go dish. A savory combination of chopped egg and oriental vegetables, it's an exciting twist on an old favorite.

'Sea doctors' save whales and dolphins

Volunteer paramedics skilled in treating marine animals are being trained to save whales and dolphins stranded and injured on Australia's beaches.

These "sea doctors," on call 24 hours a day, are equipped to treat sunburn, exhaustion, dehydration, psychological stress and infections.

1,800 more rabies cases

A total of 5,119 laboratory-confirmed cases of animal rabies in the United States and 26 in Puerto Rico was reported in 1979, an increase of more than 1,800 cases over 1978. It was the most cases reported since 1956.

SEA EVACUATION

Six U.S. Navy ships were involved in the sea evacuation of 440 people, including 200 U.S. citizens, from the Iranian ports of Bandar Abbas and Char Bahar, on Feb. 21, 1979.

Bob Hope knows just
helps veterans.

A Public Service of This Newspaper
& The Advertising Council

"If you're a veteran, the rules and regs that affect your benefits can sometimes be baffling. Where to turn for help?"

"Try Red Cross. Yes, the Red Cross."

"Last year, American Red Cross helped tens of thousands of former servicemen and their families get their educational, disability, insurance and medical benefits."

"Red Cross also helps many veterans upgrade their military discharges... and that holds the key to getting a job. Just last year, Red Cross represented more than 2100 veterans before discharge review boards."

"And discharge review for an additional 6046 veterans is in process."

"Giving a hand to veterans is another powerful reason for us to help keep Red Cross ready."

"Lend a hand."

Keep Red Cross ready.

Famed Picadilly Circus, the hub of London's theater land, may at last get a much-needed face lift. Final plans have been approved by the Greater London Council for $14 million in improvements, starting in 1982.

The statue of Eros will be moved to a new pedestrian piazza and a subway will be built lined with shops and leading to an underground shopping mall.
